

The image features a collection of cosmetic products. At the top center is the 'FROST COSMETICS' logo, with 'FROST' in a large, bold, black font and 'COSMETICS' in a smaller, spaced-out font below it. A starburst graphic is positioned between the two words. Below the logo, there are several small, clear glass jars containing pigments in various colors: pink, purple, and teal. A large, dark-colored brush is shown on the left, its bristles coated with a thick layer of bright pink pigment. On the right, another brush is shown with yellow pigment being applied to a surface. In the foreground, there are two white, shallow containers, one of which is filled with a pile of bright yellow pigment. The background is a plain, light color, making the vibrant colors of the pigments stand out.
